New story is out - Zenith of Sorcery

Hello dear readers. It has been a while. Mother of learning has gotten amazingly popular over the years. The entire story is published as an e-book (both on Amazon and elsewhere) and an audiobook, and is even in the process of getting physical editions! The first two Kickstarters have been amazingly successful. If you somehow missed my various announcements over the years and are interested in these things, well, there is still plenty of time to get them.

This story has been unlawfully obtained without the author's consent. Report any appearances on Amazon.

But aside from that, I'm making this post to draw your attention to something else. I'm writing a new story called Zenith of Sorcery. The first three chapters are already out! You can read them here:

It's not a continuation of Mother of Learning or set in the same universe, but I know many of you will still be interested so I figure I should point people at it. I hope you will like it.
